County Election

continued from page 2

elections, CI-133 addresses initiative and referendum rights, and I-194 concerns political spending by corporations and other organizations.

Absentee ballots must reach election officials by 8 p.m. November 3. A postmark alone is not sufficient.

Election Day polls are generally open from 7 a.m. until 8 p.m. Voters can check registration information, view sample ballots and find polling locations at VoteMT.gov.

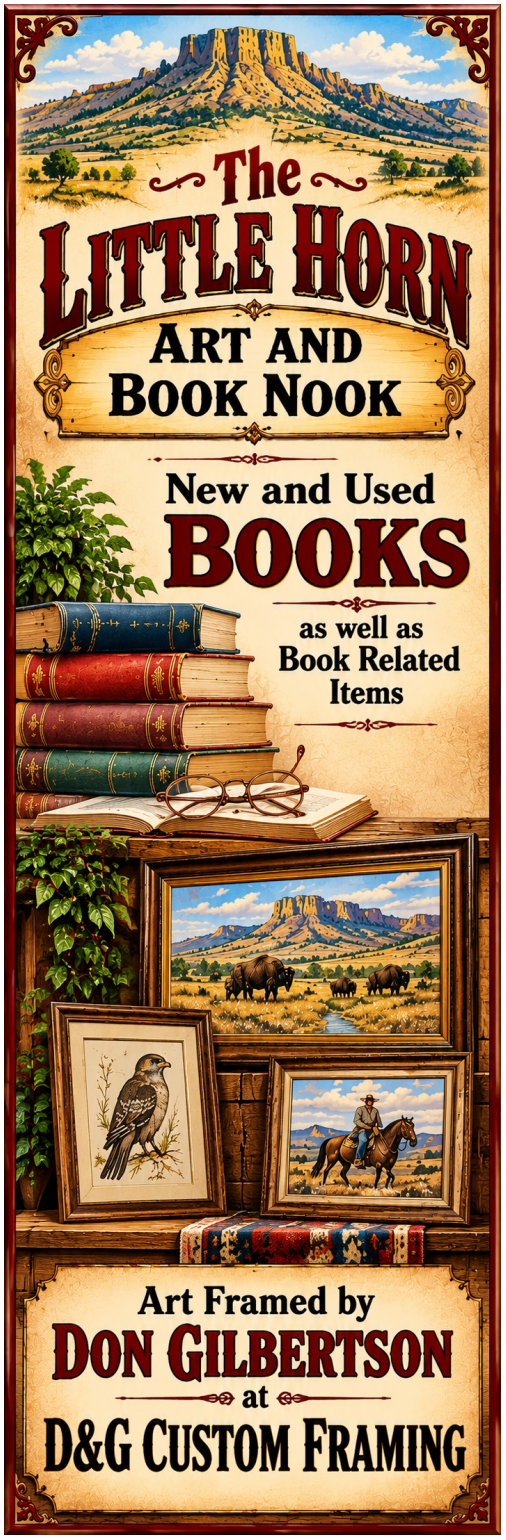

Tuesday's election will determine who fills several important county offices for the coming years.

Halloween

scheduled from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

The event is listed on the Hardin Public Schools calendar and gives area families an opportunity to enjoy Halloween activities during the daytime.

With Halloween falling on a Saturday this year, the gathering provides another holiday activity for children and families throughout the Hardin and Crow Agency.

The SARGENT CENTER EXAMINER
Serving Hardin and Big Horn County

Preparing For Election

Big Horn County voters will go to the polls Tuesday, November 3, to elect county officials and decide state and federal contests along with three statewide ballot measures.

Contested county races include county attorney, sheriff, commissioner for District 1, superintendent of schools and justice of the peace.

The county attorney race features Jordan Knudsen and Jeanne Torske. Sheriff candidates are John J. Grinsell and Timothy T.L. Smells Jr.

George Real Bird III and Heywood Big Day III are running for county commissioner in District 1, while Rana Real Bird-Amyotte and John Small seek the

continued page 2

Bulldogs Travel To Lewistown.

The Hardin-Lodge Grass Bulldogs will travel to Lewistown Friday evening, October 30, to face the Fergus Golden Eagles in the opening round of Montana's Class A football playoffs. Kickoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

The Bulldogs enter postseason competition with an impressive 7-2 overall record, including three victories in five Eastern A conference games. Lewistown

continued page 3

Halloween At Crow

Halloween festivities will be held Saturday, October 31, at Crow Agency Public School, where a Family Engagement Center trick-or-treat event is

continued page 4

KRWS-FM 100.7
94.5 Translator H
BEST OF THE OLDIES 24/7
Home of the Hardin Bulldogs
krwsfm.com

High Scool Concert

Hardin High School has scheduled its fall concert for Wednesday, October 28, from 12:30 to 2 p.m.

The concert is listed on the Hardin Public Schools calendar among activities marking the end of October.

Wednesday also marks the end of the district's first academic quarter, with the regular early-release schedule in effect.

The concert highlights the musical talents of Hardin High School students.

County Election

conginued from page 1

superintendent of schools position.

Voters will also select candidates for several other county offices.

The justice of the peace race features Ernie L. Bear Don't Walk and Josie Passes. Kimberly Yarlott is listed for clerk and recorder, Richard Kruger for coroner and Denise Rios for treasurer.

Montana voters will also decide three statewide proposals. CI-132 concerns nonpartisan judicial

continued on page 4

BullDog Football

continued from page 1

finished its regular season at 6-2, with a 4-1 record in Central A competition.

Hardin opened the season with six consecutive victories before falling to Billings Central, 47-28, on October 9. The Bulldogs rebounded with a convincing 38-0 victory over Miles City before losing their regular-season finale to undefeated Sidney, 34-6.

Lewistown also enters the playoffs following a loss. The Golden Eagles were defeated by East Helena, 34-14, in their final regular-season contest.

Friday's meeting brings together two successful Class A programs from different divisions, with both teams seeking to extend their seasons.

The winner will advance to the state quarterfinals on Friday, November 6, traveling to Columbia Falls for a 7 p.m. contest.

For the Bulldogs, Friday's game offers an opportunity to build on a strong regular season and take another step toward a state championship.

Hardin and Lodge Grass football supporters will be watching closely as the Bulldogs begin their postseason journey.

